Stop and Count the Blessings

Sometimes we all find ourselves amidst our busy schedules quickly moving from one activity to another. In this hecticness it can be easy to miss some of the simplest blessings. Yesterday I took a few minutes to slow down briefly and enjoy some neat things and blessings that were going on all around our campus.

Our seniors were in the gym rehearsing for graduation. They were obviously excited, and their lives represented how God was and still has been working in them. While rehearsing, they marched into the gym with our band and orchestra providing the music, which they have been working on now for many weeks. What a great job they did and what joy they provided.

Moving into, and through, the hallways I could see and hear in various classrooms teachers sharing their subject matter in a joyful and Christlike manner and students responding appropriately. I moved on down to the west exit doors and saw our kindergarten students outside in the lawn flying kites being assisted by our 5th grade students. All of them were thoroughly enjoying the experience. Back in the office areas I could hear the ladies talking and even sharing a chuckle or two.

Now given all of this I realize that not every day nor in every situation is it like a Norman Rockwell painting here at CAS. Life does come at us fast sometimes, but what it did remind me was that God is to be praised even as Psalm 150 reminds the readers in the last verse. Let God challenge us in our daily hectic lives and to slow down even briefly and enjoy His blessings.

Blessings,
Mr. Dray

Christian Academy Graduation Ceremony

TONIGHT at 7 p.m.

We've grown together...Spiritually, physically, intellectually.

We've prayed, we've laughed, we've loved, we've cried.

Through it all we became a family, as we grew in the Lord.

We know graduation may seem like an ending,

But to us it's just a new beginning.
