The Determining Factor

“And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is empty, and your faith is also empty.” 1 Corinthians 15:14

According to the Pew Research Center, Christians who attend church only at Christmas and Easter are sometimes called “Chreasters.” They also note that online searches for “church” peak during those two holidays with Easter being the dominant season.

Easter is by far the oldest of the two observances since “the Lord’s Day” (Revelation 1:10)-the day of Christ’s resurrection – was observed as a day for meeting and celebration soon after the Resurrection. And well it should have been, for the apostle Paul wrote that the resurrection of Christ is the determining factor in Christianity. Without the Resurrection, our preaching and our faith are all in vain (1 Corinthians 15:14, 17-19). Without the Resurrection, the faith that has changed the world is without foundation. No wonder Easter is the most-attended service at churches every year.

As you celebrate the Resurrection this Lord’s Day, praise God that your faith and hope are not in vain – because HE IS RISEN!

Verse of the Week

"This is the day the LORD has made. We will rejoice and be glad in it." Psalm 118:24 (NLT)

How do you find ways to rejoice and be glad when you don't feel it? One easy way is to start to make a list. Grab a piece of paper or notes on your phone. List small things to be thankful for. Maybe it's that you don't have to worry about your history presentation because that class is canceled. Can you thank God that the sun is out? What about all the extra time you have? Can you thank God for more time to spend reading your Bible? Even if it's small, work to find ways to rejoice. Even in the worst circumstances, if you try hard enough you can find something to rejoice about! Copied from studentdevos.com
